Our Story

The Country Women's Association of Victoria was formed 12 March 1928 and today has more than 4,000 members.

The Country Women's Association of Victoria Inc.

care empower contribute

We are a member-based Association and not-for profit, charitable organisation whose principal purpose is to provide support to vulnerable women, children and their families in need throughout metropolitan, regional, rural and remote settings in Victoria.

We do this through volunteer community services, the establishment and management of community support networks and the provision of financial aid or emergency funding.

We also cook, we craft, and we advocate for change, while empowering our members and always remaining relevant.

CWA of Victoria is an organisation for all women of all ages – metropolitan, rural, regional and remote.

We respect First Nations Elders past, present and future and acknowledge the stories, traditions and living cultures of First Nations peoples on the lands on which our members meet, and commit to building a brighter future together.
